

worship

at Altadena Valley Presbyterian Church

Welcome to Altadena Valley

We are glad you are here.

Please visit our website at www.avpc.org for more information about our beliefs, our staff and our ministries.

We want you to feel as comfortable as possible while attending worship with us, so here are a few details which might be helpful to you.

- Children are always welcome to participate in worship with their families. But, in case you need it, we do offer childcare for children ages 3 and under during both morning services. Please ask an usher for directions to where the childcare area is located.
- Midway through the worship services, children ages 4 to 6 years old will be dismissed and escorted to their own church time in Room L-1 of the Education Building. Parents can pick up their children after Sunday School or after the 11:00 AM service.
- A Nursing Mother's room, with an audio feed of the service, is located just outside the Sanctuary, next to the Parlor.

If you are visiting with us, we would love an opportunity to get to know you better. Please scan the QR code below, or sign the pew registry pad. We give our first-time visitors a small gift, which you can get in the Welcome Center or Narthex.

Come, let us worship together!

In consideration of others, please silence all electronic devices.

PRELUDE

“How Majestic”

Mothers, come adore his name. Sisters, raise your hands in praise. Lift your heads. Taste and see all he’s done—heaven to earth has come. Fathers, shout the victor’s cry. Brothers, feast upon his life. Joy has dawned, death has been overthrown, mercy is on its throne. Oh Lord, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! Sinners, come behold your King. Sufferers, rise with hope and sing, “All is well!” Mercies are new this day; burdens all met with grace. All helpless, all secure, all hopeful and all broken, all thankless and all poor, all peaceful and all violent, all fearless, all afraid, all angry, all rejoicing, all doubting, all assured, all joyful and all mourning—come gaze upon his glory. Come receive his love and mercy. His grace declares his glory. You are loved forever, wholly.

Words and Music by Adam Skatula | Brian Eichelberger | Nathan Furtado | Spencer Abbott | Zach Bolen.

CALL TO WORSHIP • Adapted from Psalm 46:1-3, 10

God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth give way and the mountains fall into the heart of the sea, though its waters roar and foam and the mountains quake with their surging. Be still, and know that he is God. Let us exalt his name among the nations; let us exalt his name in the earth.

We encourage you to use this time to prepare your hearts for worship.

Through God’s Word, his people are called to enter into his presence in corporate worship.

Our welcome of one another is a tangible expression of God's welcome to us.

INVOCATION

THE WELCOME OF GOD

SONGS OF PRAISE

“Isaiah 43”

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you
And the waves they will not overcome you.
Do not fear. For I have redeemed you.
I have called you by name, you are mine.

(Chorus)

(Men) For I am the Lord your God.

(Women) I am the Lord your God.

(Men) For I am the Lord your God.

(Women) I am...

(Together) ... the Holy One of Israel, Your Savior.

(Men) For I am the Lord your God.

(Women) I am the Lord your God.

(Men) For I am the Lord your God.

(Women) I am...

(Together) ... the Holy One of Israel, Your Savior.

I am the Lord. (Do not fear.)

I am the Lord. (Do not fear.)

I am the Lord. (Do not fear.)

I am the Lord. (Do not fear.)

(Last time only) I am the Lord.

When you walk through the fire, you'll not be burned.

And the flames they will not consume you.

Do not fear. For I have redeemed you.

I have called you by name, you are mine. (Chorus)

(Leader) In a world so wired and interconnected, our anxious hearts are pummeled by an endless barrage of troubling news.

We are daily aware of more grief, O Lord, than we can rightly consider,

of more suffering and scandal than we can respond to,

of more hostility, hatred, horror, and injustice than we can engage with compassion.

(All)* But you, O Jesus, are not disquieted

by such news of cruelty and terror and war.

You are neither anxious nor overwhelmed.

You carried the full weight of the suffering of a broken world when you hung upon the cross, and you carry it still.

“Mighty to Save”

Everyone needs compassion, a love that’s never failing.
Let mercy fall on me.
Everyone needs forgiveness, the kindness of a savior,
The hope of nations. (Hope of nations)

*Savior, he can move the mountains.
My God is mighty to save, he is mighty to save.
Forever author of salvation; he rose and conquered the grave,
Jesus conquered the grave.*

So take me as you find me, all my fears and failures.
Fill my life again.
I give my life to follow. Everything I believe in,
Now I surrender. (I surrender)

*Savior, he can move the mountains.
My God is mighty to save, he is mighty to save.
Forever author of salvation; he rose and conquered the grave,
Jesus conquered the grave.*

(Bridge) Shine your light and let the whole world see;
We’re singing for the glory of the risen King Jesus.
Shine your light and let the whole world see;
We’re singing for the glory of the risen King.

*Savior, you can move the mountains.
God, you are mighty to save, you are mighty to save.
Forever author of salvation; you rose and conquered the grave,
Yes, you conquered the grave.*

*Savior, you can move the mountains.
God, you are mighty to save, you are mighty to save.
Forever author of salvation; you rose and conquered the grave,
Yes, you conquered the grave.*

(Leader) When the cacophony of universal distress unsettles us, remind us that we are but small and finite creatures, never designed to carry the vast abstractions of great burdens, for our arms are too short and our strength is too small.

(All) Justice and mercy, healing and redemption, are your great labors.

(Leader) And yes, it is your good pleasure to accomplish such works through your people, but you have never asked any one of us to undertake more than your grace will enable us to fulfill.

(All) Guard us then from shutting down our empathy or walling off our hearts because of the glut of unactionable misery that floods our awareness.

"Jesus, I Come"

Out of my bondage, sorrow and night, Jesus, I come; Jesus I come.
Into thy freedom, gladness and light, Jesus, I come to thee.
Out of my sickness into thy health, out of my wanting and into thy wealth,
Out of my sin and into thyself, Jesus, I come to thee.

Out of my shameful failure and loss, Jesus, I come; Jesus, I come;
Into the glorious gain of thy cross, Jesus, I come to thee.
Out of earth's sorrows, into thy balm, out of life's storms and into thy calm.
Out of distress into jubilant psalm, Jesus, I come to thee.

(Leader) You have many children in many places around this globe.

Move each of our hearts to compassionately respond to those needs that intersect our actual lives, that in all places your body might be actively addressing the pain and brokenness of this world, each of us liberated and empowered by your Spirit to fulfill the small part of your redemptive work assigned to us.

Give us discernment
in the face of troubling news reports.

Give us discernment
to know when to pray,
when to speak out,
when to act,
and when to simply shut off our screens and our devices,
and to sit quietly
in your presence, casting the burdens of this world
upon the strong shoulders of the one who alone

is able to bear them up.

Amen.

“Jesus, I Come” (continued)

Out of unrest and arrogant pride,
Jesus, I come; Jesus, I come.
Into thy blessed will to abide,
Jesus, I come to thee.
Out of myself to dwell in thy love,
Out of despair into raptures above,
Upward forever on wings like a dove,
Jesus, I come to thee.

Out of the fear and dread of the tomb,
Jesus, I come; Jesus, I come.
Into the joy and light of thy home,
Jesus, I come to thee.
Out of the depths of ruin untold,
Into the peace of thy sheltering fold,
Ever thy glorious face to behold,
Jesus, I come to thee.
Jesus, I come to thee.
Jesus, I come to thee.

PASTORAL PRAYER

SCRIPTURE READING • 2 Peter 3:10-18

^{3:10} But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the heavenly bodies will be burned up and dissolved, and the earth and the works that are done on it will be exposed.

¹¹ Since all these things are thus to be dissolved, what sort of people ought you to be in lives of holiness and godliness, ¹² waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be set on fire and dissolved, and the heavenly bodies will melt as they burn! ¹³ But according to his promise we are waiting for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

¹⁴ Therefore, beloved, since you are waiting for these, be diligent to be found by him without spot or blemish, and at peace. ¹⁵ And count the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote to you according to the wisdom given him, ¹⁶ as he does in all his letters when he speaks in them of these matters. There are some things in them that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do the other Scriptures. ¹⁷ You therefore, beloved, knowing this beforehand, take care that you are not carried away with the error of lawless people and lose your own stability. ¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

SERMON • “The End...” Clint Cvacho

If you have had any contact with people at all in the past year, then you will know that few people think things are going well and few people have much faith that they will be getting better anytime soon. A simple internet search for “fear of the future” yields a multitude of hits with articles entitled, “How Can I Cope With My Feelings About The Future?” and, “75 Percent of Young People Are Frightened By The Future.” As we watch things seemingly spiral out of control, an increasing number of people are envisioning a Mad Max-type future where people are roaming from bunker to bunker in their battle wagons across a post-societal landscape. However, is it possible that we are worrying about the wrong things? Is it possible that we are failing to find hope in the right place? The apostle Peter will help us explore those possibilities today as we examine his description of the coming of the end of all things, the day of eternity.

I. ...of fruitless hope (10)

II. ...of fruitless living (11-14)

III. ...of fruitless words (15-17)

IV. ...of fruitless faith (18)

As an act of worship, we give back to God a portion of our many blessings

GIVING OF TITHES AND OFFERINGS

SONG OF RESPONSE

“Jude Doxology”

Remember, Jesus brought you out of Egypt. Remember, he has sought you as his people. Remember, he has saved you from your sin. Remember, remember him. Remember, Jesus brought you through the Red Sea. Remember, mighty miracles that you have seen. Remember, you were slaves and now are free. Remember that he is King. To the only God, our Savior Jesus Christ, be glory, honor, power and dominion before all time, and now and evermore. Remember, Jesus reigns above the heavens. He's coming, he is coming with his Kingdom. Do not forget, he is seated on the throne. Remember, what he has done. To the only God, our Savior Jesus Christ, be glory, honor, power and dominion before all time, and now and evermore. Before all time, and now, and forevermore.

Words and Music by Cam Huxford.

HYMN OF RESPONSE

PLEASE STAND

“On Jordan’s Stormy Banks”

On Jordan’s stormy banks I stand
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan’s fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

All o’er those wide extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God the Son forever reigns
And scatters night away.

*(Chorus) I am bound, I am bound,
I am bound for the promised land.
I am bound, I am bound,
I am bound for the promised land.*

No chilling winds nor pois’nous breath
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness, sorrow, pain and death
Are felt and feared no more. (Chorus)

When shall I reach that happy place
And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father’s face
And in his bosom rest? (Chorus)

BENEDICTION

Our worship concludes with God sending us into the world with his blessing.
